

Calling Nature Explorers
of all Ages!
Discover the Wild, the Weird, and the Wonderful at Asilomar State Beach and
Conference Grounds

Commemorating 150 years of California State Parks.
Saturday, August 30th,
12 noon - 4:00 p.m.

Fun, FREE activities for the entire family! Learn about the Natural Environment of Asilomar State Beach and
Conference Grounds.
Activities include:

12:00 noon: Family BBQ available for $12.00 per person. Register by 8/28/14 at www.eventbrite.com
(search: Asilomar)

12:30 p.m. MaryLee Sunseri Family Concert. Nature songs for all ages at the Fire Pit.

1:15-3:00 p.m. Activity tables:
“Make and Take” nature crafts.

1:15-3:00 p.m. PG Museum of Natural History Monarch Butterfly Display & Habitat Information.

1:15-3:00 p.m. Sustainability Station. Learn about the ‘Green Thread’ sustainability program at Asilomar.

1:30 and 2:15 p.m.
Nature hikes with State Parks staff & volunteers. Start at Beach Boardwalk.

3:00 p.m. Meet California’s
First Park Ranger, Galen
Clark at the Fire Pit—Living History Presentation.

Questions? Contact Lisa Bradford:
831-646-6443;
email: Asilomar.interp@parks.ca.gov

